David A. Schneider, an attorney and former licensed commercial real estate appraiser, has joined Archer, P.C., as an associate in the law firm's Princeton, N.J., office.

Mr. Schneider concentrates his practice in complex tax appeals and condemnation matters. He is admitted to practice in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. He is a 1998 graduate of the University of Utah and earned his law degree in 2004 from the Villanova University School of Law. During law school, he served as a law clerk to Pennsylvania Superior Court Judge Richard B. Klein.

A former real estate appraiser, Mr. Schneider has experience valuing a variety of property types including major industrial buildings, office complexes, retail developments, residential subdivisions, apartment buildings, vacant land and various special use properties.

Prior to joining Archer, Mr. Schneider was associate general counsel to a real estate development company where he handled all matters related to acquisitions, development, leasing, sales and management for a portfolio of retail, office and residential properties.

Archer, P.C., is a full-service law firm with more than 150 lawyers in six offices serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for more than 75 years. The firm's principal office is in Haddonfield, N.J., with offices in Princeton and Flemington, N.J., Philadelphia, Pa., Wilmington, Del., and New York, N.Y.
