PRINCETON, NJ - July 31, 2006 - Jeffrey D. Gordon, Esquire, a shareholder with the law firm of Archer, P.C., has been named Secretary of the New Jersey State Bar Association's Taxation Section. He previously served as Co-Chair of the Taxation Committee's Property Tax Committee.

Mr. Gordon is a former New Jersey Tax Court law clerk to Presiding Judge Michael A. Andrew, Jr., retired. Since completing his Tax Court clerkship, his practice has involved the handling of complex commercial and industrial tax appeals in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York and other East Coast states. He also advises clients about potential property tax liability for property being considered for purchase and/or development. In addition, Mr. Gordon prepares articles regarding tax appeal procedures and valuation theory, and has lectured at seminars for the Institute for Professionals in Taxation, the International Association of Assessing Officers, the New Jersey County Tax Board Administrators Annual Conference, the Appraisal Institute, the New Jersey League of Municipalities, taxpayer groups, accountants, and the bar.

Mr. Gordon is a Certified Tax Assessor, a member of the New Jersey Supreme Court Committee on the Tax Court, an Affiliate Member of the Appraisal Institute and a member of the Executive Committee of the Tax Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association. Mr. Gordon graduated with a B.S. from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and received his J.D. from the University of Cincinnati College of Law. Mr. Gordon resides in Ewing, New Jersey.
