

Frank D. Allen Receives Professional Lawyer of the Year Award

Press Releases

10.13.2006

Selected by Camden County Bar and NJ Commission on Professionalism in the Law

New Brunswick, NJ - October 13, 2006 - Archer is pleased to announce that the Camden County Bar Association and the New Jersey Commission on Professionalism in the Law presented the 2006 Professional Lawyer of the Year Award to Frank D. Allen, Esquire.

The presentation took place at the Commission's Professionalism Awards Luncheon on Friday, October 13, 2006 at the Law Center in New Brunswick. Each year, bar associations across the state present these awards to lawyers and retired judges who by virtue of their conduct, competence and demeanor, set a positive example for others in the profession.

Mr. Allen is a Certified Civil Trial Attorney who has tried cases in federal and state courts in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and other states. He is the Chair of Archer's Medical Malpractice and Personal Injury litigation practice, and can efficiently and aggressively handle both complex and more routine litigation. His reputation for integrity makes him a standout in the personal injury field, whether he is representing a plaintiff or a defendant.
