

Archer's Marc Rollo Speaks at Annual NRD Case Session

Press Releases

11.02.2006

HADDONFIELD, NJ – November 2, 2006 – Marc A. Rollo, Esquire, a partner with the law firm of Archer, was selected to present at the Ad-Hoc Industry Natural Resource Damage Group's Annual NRD Case Session in Los Angeles, California on October 25, 2006.

The Ad-Hoc Industry Natural Resource Damage Group was founded by major corporations in wide-ranging industrial sectors to enable ongoing communication among companies that were, or might become, the subject of natural resource damage (NRD) actions under CERCLA or "Superfund", the Oil Pollution Act, and other federal, state, and local laws. For more than a decade, the Group has assumed principal responsibility for coordinating industry positions on NRD matters nationally and it acts as a clearinghouse for the industrial community on wide-ranging NRD-related issues. The Group maintains contact with hundreds of companies and industry/business trade organizations across the United States and abroad in an effort to promote consistency on NRD issues throughout the industrial community, advance the state of the art, and serve as a resource on NRD-related matters.

Mr. Rollo concentrates his practice in the area of environmental litigation in both state and federal courts, with a specific emphasis on underground storage tank, NRD and MTBE litigation. He has significant experience in class action and complex litigation involving allegations of, among others, personal injury, property damage and punitive damages. Additionally, Mr. Rollo serves as lead counsel on multiple environmental regulatory matters for petrochemical companies, involving off-site access disputes, state agency cost-recovery claims, penalty assessments and natural resource damage claims.

He received his Bachelor's Degree, cum laude, from Boston College in 1987 and graduated from Villanova University School of Law in 1990. Mr. Rollo serves as the Chairman of Archer's Petroleum Industry Practices Group. He resides in Haddonfield, New Jersey.

Related People

Marc A. Rollo

Partner

✉ mrollo@archerlaw.com

☎ 856.354.3061

Related Services

- Environmental Law

© 2024 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.

