

Michele L.P. Dean Joins Expanding Philadelphia Office

Press Releases

02.11.2007

PHILADELPHIA, PA - February 12, 2007 - Archer, P.C. is pleased to announce the addition of Michele L.P. Dean, Esquire, to the firm's litigation department. Ms. Dean joins Archer as an Associate in the firm's expanding Philadelphia office. She will concentrate her practice in commercial and civil litigation.

Prior to joining Archer, Ms. Dean spent four years with the Philadelphia City Solicitor's Office. While with the City, her practice focused primarily on federal civil rights litigation where she represented city employees, specifically police officers and prison officials.

She has extensive experience with Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment claims brought under the Civil Rights Act. Ms. Dean's tenure at the City provided her with invaluable experience litigating cases from pleadings through jury verdicts. She has tried cases in Federal and State Court as first- and second-chair counsel.

Ms. Dean received her B.A. in 1995 from Muhlenberg College, where she double-majored in History/Government and English. She received her J.D. from Duke University in 2002. She resides in Philadelphia, PA.

Related Services

- Business Litigation
- Civil Rights Defense & Constitutional Litigation