

Orphans' Court Practice & Procedure

Press Releases

08.02.2007

Anthony R. La Ratta, Esq., a partner in Archer's Estate Litigation practice will address handling orphans' court cases in a half-day seminar, "Orphans' Court Practice & Procedure." Orphans' Court cases are becoming increasingly common for those practitioners and litigators who handle estates. From guardianship petitions to minors' settlements, clients increasingly require approval from the Orphans' Court to meet their needs. The two session, half-day seminar will take place at the CLE Conference Center, Wanamaker Bldg., 10th Floor, Ste. 1010, Philadelphia, PA on Thursday, August 2 at 9:00 am and 12:15 pm. Seminars will also be simulcast at the following locations: Easton, PA, Wilkes-Barre, PA, Stroudsburg, PA, Norristown, PA, Mechanicsburg, PA, York, PA, and Pittsburgh, PA.

Related People

Anthony R. La Ratta

Partner

✉ alaratta@archerlaw.com

☎ 856.354.3094

Related Services

- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Business Litigation
- Estate & Trust Litigation