

Steven Mignogna Named Chair of the American Bar Association Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee

Press Releases

09.06.2007

HADDONFIELD, NJ (September 6, 2007) - Steven K. Mignogna was named Chair of the American Bar Association Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee at the August 2007 Annual Meeting in San Francisco, CA. This Committee is in the ABA Section of Real Property, Probate and Trust Law.

Steve Mignogna is a partner in Archer's Litigation Department, where he concentrates much of his practice on probate matters involving estates, fiduciaries, guardianships, and real estate. He is also chair of the firm's Estate and Trust Litigation Group.

Mr. Mignogna has represented both institutions and individuals. The institutions include banks, corporate fiduciaries, investment companies, real estate firms, and title insurance companies. The individuals include the beneficiaries of estates and trusts, executors, trustees, guardians, incapacitated persons, surviving spouses, investors, realtors, and persons having an interest in real estate. He has handled an assortment of cases in the state and federal courts, at both the trial and appellate levels.

Mr. Mignogna has lectured and published locally and nationally. He is also the author of the book, "Estate and Trust Litigation," and editor and contributing author of "The New Jersey Estate Planning Manual," both published by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.

The American Bar Association Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee reviews developments related to estate and trust litigation, including will contests, surcharge litigation, contested guardianships and conservatorships and alternative dispute resolution. It studies selected issues, such as the right to a jury trial and the availability of punitive damages. The committee also analyzes specific evidentiary questions (for example, attorney-client relationships, attorney-work product and ethical and conflict of interest issues in the field). The committee publishes information for Section members on these topics, and participates in or sponsors Section CLE programs.

Related People

Steven K. Mignogna

Partner

✉ smignogna@archerlaw.com

☎ 856.354.3024

Related Services

- Business Litigation
- Estate & Trust Litigation

© 2025 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.

