Philadelphia, PA - (October 16, 2007) - Jeffrey M. Kolansky, a Shareholder with Archer, P.C., appeared on CN8's "Your Morning" on Monday, October 15th, to discuss issues relating to the thwarted potential school massacre at Plymouth-Whitemarsh High School.

Mr. Kolansky, a former long-time prosecutor with the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office and veteran police attorney, merged his prior firm into Haddonfield based Archer in 2004, South Jersey's largest and oldest law firm, to build its Philadelphia practice. The Philadelphia office along with Archer's five other locations provides full-service litigation and transactional representation in nearly every area of law.
