

Archer Announces New Partner

Press Releases

10.18.2007

HADDONFIELD, NJ – October 18, 2007 – The law firm of Archer P.C. is pleased to announce that William J. Ryan has been named partner of the firm.

WILLIAM J. RYAN a member in the firm’s Haddonfield office. He has experience in all aspects of litigation related to commercial matters in federal and state courts in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Mr. Ryan devotes a substantial part of his practice to construction litigation. His practice areas include construction defect litigation including design professional malpractice litigation, as well as representing and counseling media clients on various First Amendment issues including court room access applications, right to know requests, Sunshine Law issues, defamation claims, and reporter’s privilege matters.

Related People

William L. Ryan

Partner

✉ wryan@archerlaw.com

☎ 856.354.3122

Related Services

- Business Litigation
- Construction Litigation & Real Estate Litigation
- First Amendment & Media Communications Litigation