

Steven K. Mignogna Named to Faculty of Leading Estate Planning Conference

Press Releases

12.26.2007

HADDONFIELD, N.J., Dec. 27, 2007 – Steven K. Mignogna, Esquire, a partner in the law firm of Archer, has been selected to present at the 42nd Annual Heckerling Institute on Estate Planning, sponsored by the University of Miami School of Law.

The Institute, one of the nation's leading estate planning programs, convenes Jan. 14 to 18, 2008, in Orlando, Fla. Attracting more than 2,500 estate planning professionals, the conference tracks significant developments in the law of trust and estates, including the growing prospect of attorneys and fiduciaries being called to give depositions or even testify in court.

Mr. Mignogna, Chair of the American Bar Association Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee, will participate on a panel of leading fiduciary litigators who will advise on strategies for being deposed, as well as on taking and defending depositions. The panelists will also discuss defensive techniques during the estate planning process and participate in a "mock deposition" to demonstrate their points.

Mr. Mignogna, Chair of Archer's Estate and Trust Litigation Group, focuses his practice in the area of commercial litigation, with a concentration on probate matters, estates, fiduciaries, guardianships and real estate. He is the author, contributing author and editor of several manuals on estate and trust issues, including Estate & Trust Litigation (2006), published by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.

Mr. Mignogna can be reached at (856) 795-2121 or smignogna@archerlaw.com.
