

Henry Boenning Selected as Chamber of Commerce Secretary

Press Releases

02.07.2008

Feb. 7, 2008

Henry O. Boenning, a Partner with the law firm of Archer, P.C., has been installed as secretary of the Burlington County Chamber of Commerce.

Boenning, of Medford, N.J., a Partner in Archer's Haddonfield office, was named to the position at the Chamber's Annual Installation and Recognition Dinner recently at the Riverton Country Club in Cinnaminson. He has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Chamber since January of 2005.

Boenning, a member of Archer's Real Estate Services Department, concentrates his practice on transactional real estate, including leasing arrangements representing office, industrial and retail landlords and tenants; financing, acquisition and sale of office, industrial and retail developments as well as residential land tracts; commercial real estate lending representing both lenders and borrowers; and apartment complex financing, development and operations. He also represents franchisees and other business owners, including those involved in liquor license transactions and related matters.

Archer, P.C., is a full-service law firm with more than 150 lawyers in six offices serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for more than 75 years. The firm's principal office is in Haddonfield, N.J., with offices in Princeton and Flemington, N.J., Philadelphia, Pa., Wilmington, Del., and New York, N.Y. For more information visit www.archerlaw.com.

###

Related People

Henry O. Boenning

Partner

✉ hboenning@archerlaw.com

☎ 856.354.3019

Related Services

- Real Estate

© 2025 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.

