

Anthony LaRatta & Steven Mignogna Help Lead Guardianship Workshop Series

Press Releases

03.11.2008

March 3, 2008

The Camden County Bar Association Continuing Legal Education Committee will present the second in a four-part workshop series, Contested Guardianships from the Front Lines, on Tuesday, March 11, 2008, at the Bar Association's headquarters at 1040 Kings Highway in Cherry Hill, N.J.

Session 2 of the series addresses "Identifying the Issue and Facts to Prove Your Case" and will run from noon until 1 p.m. Participation in Session 2 does not require attendance at Session 1, held last month.

The panel of attorneys participating in the workshop includes two partners from the Haddonfield office of Archer, P.C. - Anthony R. LaRatta of Sewell and Steven K. Mignogna of Voorhees. Both are members of the firm's Litigation Department and concentrate their practices on commercial litigation with emphasis on probate matters, estates, trusts, guardianships and fiduciaries.

Session 2 is designed to help attendees identify issues and drafting considerations for complaints, answers and discovery materials; and to form drafts of a complaint for contested guardianship, an answer, and written discovery to include interrogatories, demands for production and demands for admissions.

The Contested Guardianships workshop series is co-sponsored by the Bar Association's Elder Law, Social Security & Disability Committee. Session 3 is scheduled for March 25, 2008, and addresses "Choosing Experts and the Discovery Process." Session 4 is scheduled for April 8, 2008, and addresses "Trial Preparation." The workshop series concludes with a mock trial on April 22, 2008, at the Mansion in Voorhees.
