

New Jersey Association for Homes and Services for the Aging (NJAHSA) Annual Conference

Press Releases

05.27.2008

The annual conference of the New Jersey Association for Homes and Services for the Aging (NJAHSA) will include a presentation entitled "Retorts, Reports and Last Resorts: An Update on State Reporting Requirements" by Archer attorneys Robert Fogg and William Isele.

The three-day conference, Charting Our Course, begins on May 27, 2008, at the Trump Taj Mahal in Atlantic City, N.J. The conference is designed for professionals who provide services to elderly residents within assisted living and long-term care facilities, continuing care retirement communities, residential health care centers, and independent senior housing. NJAHSA is the statewide association of not-for-profit senior care organizations.

For more information and to register, see the conference brochure by clicking here.

###

Related Services

- Estate & Trust Litigation