The 11th Annual Elder and Disability Law Symposium of the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE) will include a workshop entitled "Identifying and Remediating Senior Abuse and Exploitation," presented by attorney William P. Isele of Archer, P.C.

The symposium takes place on Wednesday, July 16, 2008, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the New Jersey Law Center, One Constitution Square, New Brunswick. The session is designed for new and experienced lawyers and provides critical information and practice tips on handling tax and government benefit planning needs as well as the financial, medical and long-term care management needs of the senior and disabled client, within a framework of ever increasing complexity. Attendees will choose from individual workshops geared to their experience level. In addition to Isele's session on elder abuse and exploitation, topics include the latest developments in Medicaid planning, special needs planning and guardianship practice. The event also features a networking luncheon.
