Attorney Steven K. Mignogna has been appointed Chair of the Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee of the American Bar Association (ABA) for a second consecutive year.

Mignogna, a Partner in the Haddonfield, N.J., office of Archer, P.C., officially begins his second term during the ABA's Annual Meeting, Aug. 7-12, 2008, in New York City. The Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee is part of the ABA's Section of Real Property, Trust & Estate Law.

"This appointment is a reflection of the significant contributions you have made to the Section," wrote Section Chair-Elect Steve R. Akers in a letter reappointing Mignogna.

The Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee reviews national developments related to estate and trust litigation, including will contests, surcharge litigation, contested guardianships and conservatorships and alternative dispute resolution.

Mignogna, of Voorhees, N.J., is Chair of Archer's Estate and Trust Litigation Group. He focuses his practice in the area of commercial litigation, with a concentration on probate matters, estates, fiduciaries, guardianships and real estate. He has lectured and published locally and nationally. He is also the author of the book, Estate and Trust Litigation, and editor and contributing author of The New Jersey Estate Planning Manual, both published by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.

Archer, P.C., is a full-service law firm with more than 150 lawyers in six offices serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for more than 75 years. The firm's principal office is in Haddonfield, N.J., with offices in Princeton and Flemington, N.J., Philadelphia, Pa., Wilmington, Del., and New York, N.Y.
