

Heckerling Institutes 43rd Annual Estate Planning Conference

Press Releases

01.11.2009

The Heckerling Institute of the University of Miami School of Law will hold its 43rd annual conference on Estate Planning, January 12 - 16, 2009. Steven K. Mignogna, Esquire, a partner at Archer, has been selected to present on the topic of, "Estate Litigation for the Ethical Estate Planner".

The Heckerling Institute on Estate Planning is the nation's leading conference for estate planning professionals. It is designed for sophisticated attorneys, trust officers, accountants, insurance advisors, and wealth management professionals who are familiar with the principles of estate planning. Attracting more than 2,500 estate planning professionals, the conference tracks significant developments in the law of trust and estates, including the growing prospect of attorneys and fiduciaries being called to give depositions or even testify in court.

Mr. Mignogna, Chair of the American Bar Association Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee, will participate on a panel of leading fiduciary litigators who will advise on strategies for those interested in the burgeoning field of estate and trust litigation. Topics will include common mistakes, fees, and costs, and ethical and malpractice problems.

For more information on attending the conference visit: <http://www.law.miami.edu/heckerling/index.php>

Related People

Steven K. Mignogna

Partner

✉ smignogna@archerlaw.com

☎ 856.354.3024

Related Services

- Estate & Trust Litigation

© 2025 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.

