

Archer Donates Over $21,000 to American Red Cross for Haiti Relief

Press Releases

01.27.2010

Angela Titus McEwan, left, a Partner at the law firm of Archer and Vice Chair of the American Red Cross Camden County Chapter Board of Directors, is thanked by Camy Trinidad, Camden County Red Cross Executive Director. The law firm and its employees donated $21,140 to assist with relief efforts in Haiti after the devastating earthquake on Jan. 12 – $11,140 in individual donations and $10,000 from the firm. In addition, employees donated dozens of gently-used crutches and orthopedic supplies, such as walking casts and leg braces.