

Carlos M. Bollar Elected Trustee Of Hispanic Bar Association of N.J.

Press Releases

11.04.2009

Carlos M. Bollar, a Partner with Archer, P.C., has been elected to serve on the Board of Trustees of the Hispanic Bar Association of New Jersey (HBANJ).

The Board sets policy for the HBANJ, a statewide organization representing attorneys, judges, law professors and law students who share a common interest in resolving the issues affecting Hispanics within the legal community. The 15-member HBANJ Board of Trustees includes 11 regional members and four at-large members. Bollar, a Mount Laurel resident, serves as Trustee from Region 10, consisting of Burlington, Camden and Gloucester counties.

The purpose of the Association is to serve the public interest by cultivating the art and science of jurisprudence, by advancing the standing of the legal profession, and by preserving high standards of integrity, honor, and professional courtesy among Hispanic lawyers.

Bollar, a member of Archer's Environmental Law Practice Group in Haddonfield, is a seasoned litigator with extensive experience in environmental cases, including complex matters in state and federal courts in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and other states. He is a member of the Diversity Committee at Archer as well as a member of the Board of Directors of the Philadelphia Diversity Law Group, which promotes diversity in the practice of law, particularly in the greater Philadelphia area. He has been a featured speaker on a variety of topics including diversity in the legal profession.
