January 20, 2009

Attorney Steven K. Mignogna of Archer, P.C., has been named a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA), a national honorary society that recognizes excellence and integrity among trial lawyers.

The purpose of the LCA is to recognize deserving, experienced, and highly qualified lawyers, to provide an outlet for scholarly authorship of legal articles on trial and litigation practice, to provide additional sources for professional development, to promote superior advocacy and ethical standards in the practice of law, to assist in community involvement by its membership, and to advance a superior judiciary, by taking relevant positions on issues or legislation affecting judicial compensation and/or benefits, as well as those affecting the American litigation processes.

Mr. Mignogna, a Partner in Archer's Haddonfield, N.J., office, is Chair of the firm's Estate and Trust Litigation Group. He focuses his practice in the area of commercial litigation, with a concentration on probate matters, estates, fiduciaries, guardianships and real estate. Mr. Mignogna is the author, contributing author and editor of several manuals on estate and trust issues, including Estate & Trust Litigation (2006), published by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.

He lives in Voorhees, N.J.
