

Senior Citizens Law Day Conference

Press Releases

05.06.2009

Wednesday, May 6, 2009, William P. Isele, Esquire of Archer, P.C. will speak at the Senior Citizens' Law Day Conference, sponsored by the New Jersey State Bar Foundation and the New Jersey State Bar Association's Elder and Disability Law Section.

The seminar titled, "Make Your Mature Years Truly Golden: Vital Strategies for Seniors," will be held at the New Jersey Law Center off Ryders Lane in New Brunswick, NJ from 10 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Isele, a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and the New Jersey State Bar Association's Elder and Disabilities Law Section, will educate attendees on the frequent news stories about unwitting seniors falling prey to unscrupulous con artists. Mr. Isele's presentation, "Don't Be a Victim! How to Avoid Rip-Offs and Scams that Target Seniors," offers practical advice and tips to keep seniors and their finances safe.

Isele, Of Counsel in Archer's office in Princeton, has more than 33 years' experience in health care law and elder law. Before joining Archer, he served the State of New Jersey as its Ombudsman for the Institutionalized Elderly from 1999 through 2007, serving under five governors. He provides advice and representation to a wide range of health care entities, from individual practitioners to hospitals, long-term care facilities, and hospice providers. He also represents individuals and families faced with the difficult tasks related to long-term care planning and obtaining compassionate and competent end-of-life care.

A complimentary continental breakfast will be offered. Admission is free but registration is required.
