

Salvatore M. DeBunda Elected to Board of Group that Presents Peter Nero & Philly Pops

Press Releases

06.17.2009

Philadelphia attorney Salvatore M. DeBunda has been elected as a Board Member of Encore Series Inc. (ESI), the nonprofit agency that presents Grammy-award winning pianist/conductor Peter Nero and the Philly Pops orchestra.

Prior to his election to the Board, DeBunda served as a member of the Pops Committee, which promotes the orchestra and raises funds for programming. A Managing Partner of the Philadelphia office of Archer, P.C., DeBunda also served as co-Chair of the Philly Pops 30th Anniversary Celebration Committee, which spearheaded special activities, including a special concert June 5, to mark three decades of audience-pleasing music by the orchestra, founded in 1979.

The Philly Pops is a one-of-a kind orchestra that authentically performs a wide variety of musical genres. Featuring talented musicians from the musically rich Philadelphia region, the Philly Pops consistently brings audiences to their feet with exhilarating performances. Peter Nero's imaginative programming has made Philly Pops concerts unique, and his participation as pianist alongside his guest artists has become an audience favorite.

ESI presents five separate series of concerts each year featuring Peter Nero and the Philly Pops, as well as the holiday season Pops show. In addition, ESI presents other cultural events and educates the public about music. At the beginning of each school year, Pops musicians visit a wide variety of schools and school music programs to perform small ensemble concerts designed to introduce students to basic musical elements. The musicians also conduct special workshops and demonstrations, and coach middle and high school music groups.
