

Stephen M. Packman Earns Board Certification As Business Bankruptcy Specialist

Press Releases

06.30.2009

Insolvency and restructuring attorney Stephen M. Packman of Archer, P.C., in Haddonfield, N.J., has successfully completed the requirements for national certification in business bankruptcy law, the American Board of Certification (ABC) announced.

Packman serves as Chair of Archer's Bankruptcy/Debtor & Creditors' Rights Group, and Co-Chair of the firm's International Law Group. His board certification is based on meeting the ABC's rigorous standards, including number, nature and results of cases handled, commitment to continuing legal education and a lengthy written examination. The ABC, a nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the quality of the bankruptcy bar, is co-sponsored by the American Bankruptcy Institute and the Commercial Law League of America. The certification program is accredited by the American Bar Association.

Packman has extensive experience representing a broad range of clients in insolvency matters, restructurings and litigation, including commercial bankruptcy proceedings, workouts, foreclosure proceedings, collection actions and PACA (Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act) disputes and litigation. He is a Fellow of INSOL International, a worldwide federation of insolvency professionals, having successfully completed an intensive nine-month course in global insolvency practice.

Archer, P.C., is a full-service law firm with more than 175 lawyers serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for more than 80 years. The firm has offices in Haddonfield, Princeton and Flemington, N.J., as well as in Philadelphia, Pa., New York City and Wilmington and Georgetown, Del. For more information, visit www.archerlaw.com.
