

Robert Egan Appointed to Medford Twp. Recreation Board

Press Releases

03.10.2010

Attorney Robert T. Egan has been appointed to the Medford Township, N.J., Recreation Advisory Board.

The Recreation Advisory Board advises the Medford Township Council and township staff members with respect to recreational policies, programs and activities within Medford, a 40-square mile community of 22,000 residents. A Medford resident since 1987, Mr. Egan has long been active in youth sports in the township in several on- and off-field capacities. He has served as a Director of the Medford Youth Athletic Association for seven years and as its Executive Vice President since 2007.

A Partner at Archer, P.C., in Haddonfield, where he serves as Co-Chair of the firm's Employment Competition and Information Protection Practice Group, Mr. Egan concentrates his practice in commercial litigation in the state and federal courts in New Jersey and in other jurisdictions. He has extensive experience in complex litigation involving intellectual property, copyright, trademark, infringement, trade secrets, restrictive employment covenants, franchise, anti-trust and trade regulation, computer and high technology, commercial, contract and class action issues, with an emphasis upon representing clients engaged in technology sectors.
