

Mark J. Sever Named to South Jersey Board of Junior Achievement of New Jersey

Press Releases

04.08.2010

Attorney Mark J. Sever Jr. has been selected to serve on the South Jersey Board of Directors of Junior Achievement of New Jersey Inc. (JANJ), a non-profit organization dedicated to educating and inspiring young people for success in finances, business and economics.

JANJ is a member of JA Worldwide, the world's largest organization dedicated to educating students about workforce readiness, entrepreneurship and financial literacy through hands-on programs. JA Worldwide reaches more than 9.7 million students in more than 120 countries.

JANJ is governed by a State Board of Directors and three District Boards that support fundraising and programming in the southern, central and northern parts of New Jersey. Mr. Sever, a Moorestown resident and Partner at Archer, P.C., in Haddonfield, is a member of the South Board. JANJ connects dedicated volunteers with students in grades K-12 for in-school and after-school programs that focus on seven key content areas: business, citizenship, economics, entrepreneurship, ethics/character, financial literacy, and career development.

Mr. Sever serves as Co-Chair of Archer's Intellectual Property Practice Group. He specializes in corporate law with emphasis on intellectual property such as patents, copyrights, trademarks and trade secrets, as well as technology-related matters. He also has significant experience in contracting, mergers and acquisitions, and business organization and counseling. His experience covers both litigation and transactional matters. He represents a wide range of clients, from Internet start-ups to Fortune 500 companies and international companies.

Archer, P.C., is a full-service law firm with more than 175 lawyers serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for more than 80 years. The firm has offices in Haddonfield, Princeton and Flemington, N.J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; New York, N.Y.; and Wilmington and Georgetown, Del. For more information, visit www.archerlaw.com.
