

21st Annual Spring Symposia, American Bar Association Section of Real Property, Trust & Estate Law

Press Releases

05.07.2010

Steven K. Mignogna, Chair of the Estate & Trust Litigation Group at Archer, P.C., will be a featured presenter at the 21st Annual Spring Symposia of the American Bar Association (ABA) Section of Real Property, Trust & Estate Law, taking place May 6-7 at the Philadelphia Marriott Downtown, Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. Mignogna, Chair of the ABA's Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee, will help lead a session entitled "Gifts Gone Wild: What to Do When Donors and Charities Don't See Eye to Eye." The workshop takes place on Friday, May 7, at 1 p.m.

Mr. Mignogna and other speakers will address such topics as:

- Donor restrictions on how charities use gifts while charities sometimes prefer the flexibility of unrestricted gifts.
- The potential conflicts between donors and charities, which are readily apparent and have arisen in recent high-profile cases.
- Drafting for donor intent, negotiating on behalf of the donor or charity and enforcing restrictions, including the evolving legal concept of standing to sue and the role of state attorneys general.
