

Lynne Abraham Rejoins Board of Reading Terminal Market Preservation Group

Press Releases

04.20.2010

Attorney Lynne M. Abraham has been re-appointed to the Board of Directors of the Reading Terminal Market Preservation Fund, which provides financial and operational support to Philadelphia's historic downtown farmers market.

The former longtime District Attorney of Philadelphia, Ms. Abraham is a Partner with the law firm of Archer, P.C. She was a founding Board member of the Fund, which was established more than 25 years ago to preserve and enhance the Reading Terminal Market, one of America's largest and oldest public markets. Housed since 1893 in a National Historic Landmark building at 12th and Arch streets in Center City Philadelphia, the market features dozens of vendors offering fresh, locally grown and organic produce, meats, poultry, seafood, cheeses, baked goods, herbs, spices and confections along with flowers, kitchenware, cookbooks, decorative linens, jewelry and crafts.

Ms. Abraham focuses her practice on government relations, mediation, litigation and trial strategy and tactics, as well as appellate advocacy.

Archer, P.C., is a full-service law firm with more than 175 lawyers serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for more than 80 years. The firm has offices in Philadelphia, Pa., as well as in Haddonfield, Princeton and Flemington, N.J., New York City and Wilmington and Georgetown, Del. For more information, visit www.archerlaw.com.
