

Red Cross Recognizes Archer for Community Contributions

Press Releases

05.19.2010

The Camden County Chapter of the American Red Cross recently presented its 2010 Good Neighbor Award to Archer, P.C. The Good Neighbor Awards were instituted more than 20 years ago to honor individuals and groups whose contributions to their community reflect the humanitarian principles of the Red Cross. Additional 2010 Good Neighbor Award honorees were Joseph Balzano, Executive Director of the South Jersey Port Corp., and Camden County Freeholder Carmen Rodriguez. Pictured are (l. to r.) former Haddonfield Mayor Jack Tarditi, co-Chair of the 2010 Good Neighbor Awards Dinner; former American Red Cross Board of Directors Chairman John C. Connell of Archer; current Chapter Vice Chair Angela Titus McEwan of Archer; Archer Chairman James H. Carll; and former Philadelphia Eagles President Harry Gamble, co-Chair of the 2010 Good Neighbor Awards Dinner.
