

Thomas Muccifori to Continue Longtime Leadership of Bar Association Section

Press Releases

08.06.2010

Thomas A. Muccifori, of Moorestown, N.J., has been reappointed to serve as Co-Chair of the General Equity Section of the Burlington County Bar Association.

An attorney with Archer, P.C., in Haddonfield, since 1986 and a shareholder of the firm since 1993, Mr. Muccifori has chaired the Bar Association's General Equity Section since 2003. General equity cases typically involve litigation of trade secret, restrictive covenant, real estate, and other commercial disputes in which court relief, often in the form of a temporary or preliminary injunction, is sought on an emergent basis.

Mr. Muccifori was recently named a Top Attorney by SJ Magazine in the area of commercial law, the fifth consecutive year the magazine has recognized him as a regional leader in his field. The founder and Chair of Archer's Employment Competition & Information Protection Practice Group, Mr. Muccifori aggressively litigates business and employment disputes of all types both in Federal Court and the Chancery and Law Divisions in state court. He has gained nationwide experience in drafting, negotiating, counseling and litigating on behalf of employers, employees and others in the trade secret and restrictive covenant context.

Archer, P.C., is a full-service law firm with more than 175 lawyers serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for more than 80 years. The firm has offices in Haddonfield, Princeton and Flemington, N.J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; New York, N.Y.; and Wilmington and Georgetown, Del. For more information, visit www.archerlaw.com.
