

William J. Thompson Named Professional Lawyer of the Year

Press Releases

09.24.2010

William J. Thompson, Chair of the Family & Matrimonial Services Department at Archer, P.C., has been named Camden County (N.J.) Professional Lawyer of the Year for 2010 by the Camden County Bar Association.

Mr. Thompson, based in Archer's Haddonfield office, will receive his award at the annual Professionalism Awards Luncheon on Oct. 6, 2010, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in New Brunswick. Sponsored by the New Jersey Commission on Professionalism in the Law, the award recognizes and honors attorneys who are considered by their peers to exhibit the highest professional character and competency, are respected in the community, and are models of professional conduct. The Commission is a cooperative venture of the New Jersey State Bar Association (NJSBA), the state and federal judiciary, and New Jersey's three law schools - Rutgers-Camden, Rutgers-Newark and Seton Hall.

Mr. Thompson, of Medford, focuses his practice on all aspects of family law, including divorce, adoption, parental rights, custody, support and domestic violence. He is a past Chair of the Family Law Section of the NJSBA and past President of the Thomas Forkin Family Law Inns of Court, a consortium of family law judges, attorneys and legal academics organized to improve the skills, professionalism and ethics of the bench and bar. In addition, Mr. Thompson is a member of the Board of Directors of the Arthritis Foundation New Jersey Chapter and past Chair of the chapter's annual South Jersey Walk for Arthritis.

Archer, P.C., is a full-service law firm with more than 175 lawyers serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for more than 80 years. The firm has offices in Haddonfield, Princeton and Flemington, N.J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; New York, N.Y.; and Wilmington and Georgetown, Del. For more information, visit www.archerlaw.com.
