

Union League of Philadelphia Names A&G Chairman James Carll to Board of Directors

Press Releases

12.15.2010

James H. Carll, Chairman of the law firm Archer P.C., has been selected to serve on the Board of Directors of the Union League of Philadelphia, the venerable society devoted to patriotism, philanthropy and civic endeavors.

As a Board member, Mr. Carll will help set policy for the Union League, a 3,200-member organization founded in 1862 to support the Union and the policies of President Abraham Lincoln. As in 1862, today's members represent the Philadelphia region's leaders in business, education, religion, the arts and culture. The League's civic participation and philanthropic outreach take the form of three charitable foundations: The Youth Work Foundation, The Scholarship Foundation and The Abraham Lincoln Foundation, which educate the public about our nation's history, recognize student role models in our region's schools, and provide scholarships to deserving students.

Mr. Carll, of Haddonfield, N.J., practices corporate law with a special emphasis on complex business transactions. He has served as Chairman of Archer's Board of Directors since 2002 and Chairman of the firm's Corporate Department since 1991. He provides representation and counsel to companies ranging from small, local businesses to public corporations and large privately-held enterprises, as well as nonprofit organizations, in mergers and acquisitions, financings, securities law and other matters. His extensive community involvement includes serving on the boards of numerous civic, professional and charitable organizations.

Archer, P.C., is a full-service law firm with more than 175 lawyers serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for more than 80 years. The firm has offices in Haddonfield, Princeton and Flemington, N.J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; New York, N.Y.; and Wilmington and Georgetown, Del. For more information, visit www.archerlaw.com.
