

Steven Mignogna Addresses Novel Estate & Trust Claims at National Conference

Press Releases

01.17.2011

Steven K. Mignogna of Archer, P.C., spoke recently at the nation's leading conference for trust and estate attorneys and professionals, where he helped lead a program on novel types of estate and trust litigation claims.

Mr. Mignogna, Chair of the Estate & Trust Litigation Group at Archer in Haddonfield, N.J., served as a faculty member at the 45th Annual Heckerling Institute on Estate Planning, which took place Jan. 10-14, in Orlando, Fla. Mr. Mignogna helped present "Seven Deadly Claims," a Jan. 12 seminar that surveyed the seven most significant types of novel estate and trust claims, including the elements of each, defenses and techniques to use in the planning process to avoid them.

Sponsored by the University of Miami School of Law, the Heckerling Institute is designed for attorneys, trust officers, accountants, insurance advisors and wealth management professionals who handle estate planning. The conference tracks significant developments in the law regarding trusts and estates, including the growing wave of estate and trust litigation.

Mr. Mignogna, of Voorhees, focuses his practice in commercial litigation, with a concentration on probate matters, estates, fiduciaries, guardianships and real estate. He is the author, contributing author and editor of several manuals on estate and trust issues, including Estate & Trust Litigation, published by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.

Archer, P.C., is a full-service law firm with more than 175 lawyers serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for more than 80 years. The firm has offices in Haddonfield, Princeton and Flemington, N.J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; New York, N.Y.; and Wilmington and Georgetown, Del. For more information, visit www.archerlaw.com.
