Archer Partner Anthony R. La Ratta was a featured speaker at "Recent Developments In New Jersey Law: 2011," a seminar presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE) on Thursday, July 28, 2011.

During this informative program, Mr. La Ratta and other leading New Jersey authorities provided insight into the latest developments in their respective fields – from professional malpractice, products liability and fiduciary litigation to labor and employment, use of arbitration and mediation, and ethical concerns. Specifically, Mr. La Ratta spoke on recent developments in fiduciary litigation.

Attendees earned CLE credits, including ethics credits, and take home a comprehensive seminar handbook that can serve as a useful resource in practice.

Mr. La Ratta, of Washington Township, N.J., concentrates his practice in the area of commercial litigation with an emphasis on litigation involving probate matters, estates, trusts, guardianships and fiduciaries. He has represented institutions and individuals in a variety of contexts and has handled cases involving will contests, undue influence, diminished capacity and accountings of estates and trusts. Mr. La Ratta is also a court-approved mediator for New Jersey probate cases.
