

Archer Gives Law Students Hands-on Experience

Press Releases

06.16.2011

Archer, PC kicked off the Summer Associate Program this month with seven law students. The program allows second and third year law students an opportunity to gain experience working with attorneys, staff and clients at one of New Jersey's largest law firms. The Archer's Summer Associate Program includes social as well as vocational activities that help the law students get to know each other and firm personnel.
