

Steven Mignogna Appointed Vice Chair of American Bar Association Group

Press Releases

 align=Attorney Steven K. Mignogna of Archer P.C. has been appointed to serve as Vice Chair of the Litigation, Ethics and Malpractice Group of the American Bar Association (ABA).

Mr. Mignogna, a Partner based in Archer's Haddonfield office, chairs the firm's Estate and Trust Litigation Practice. In addition to his new leadership position with the Litigation, Ethics and Malpractice Group, Mr. Mignogna has, in the past, served as Chair of the ABA's Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee. Both the Group and the Committee are part of the ABA's Section of Real Property, Trust & Estate Law.

The Litigation, Ethics and Malpractice Group reviews national developments related to trust, estate and fiduciary litigation matters, addresses ethics and malpractice issues affecting trust and estate lawyers, and educates members on national trends in these areas through efforts such as continuing legal education programs and articles. The Group assists other Section Groups in issues germane to the Section's mission and analyzes litigation, ethics and malpractice disputes that impact estate planning, administration or any other litigation or controversy.

Mr. Mignogna, of Voorhees, N.J., focuses his practice in the area of commercial litigation, with a concentration on probate matters, estates, fiduciaries, guardianships and real estate. He has lectured and published locally and nationally. He is also the author of the book, Estate and Trust Litigation, and editor and contributing author of The New Jersey Estate Planning Manual and The New Jersey Probate Procedures Book, all published by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.

Archer PC is a full-service regional law firm with more than 200 lawyers and eight offices in Haddonfield, Hackensack, Princeton and Flemington, N.J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; New York, N.Y.; and Wilmington and Georgetown, Del.
