

John P. Kahn Elected to Board of Directors of Garden State Bar Association

Press Releases

align=John P. Kahn, an attorney with Archer P.C., has been elected to serve on the Board of Directors of the Garden State Bar Association (GSBA). Mr. Kahn also serves as a Regional Director of the GSBA, representing Camden, Gloucester and Salem Counties.

As the primary governing body of the GSBA, the Board of Directors is responsible for, among other things, establishing and implementing the policy and direction of the GSBA; interpreting the GSBA's goals, methods and objectives, both to the legal community and the community-at-large; and providing continuity of experienced leadership, so that changes do not weaken the effectiveness of the Association.

The purpose of the GSBA is to assist African-Americans and other ethnic minorities in becoming an effective part of the judicial and legal systems. The Association seeks to advance the science of jurisprudence, improve the administration of justice, support initiatives designed to improve economic condition of all individuals, and eliminate discrimination and inequality based on racial, ethnic or sexual considerations. The GSBA establishes programs and projects to pursue, support and facilitate the implementation of these goals.

Mr. Kahn is an Associate in the Commercial Litigation Practice Group at Archer in Haddonfield. He concentrates his practice in the defense of civil rights claims, class action litigation, health care fraud and abuse claims, and claims arising under employment and health care plans.

Archer PC is a full-service regional law firm with more than 200 lawyers and eight offices in Haddonfield, Hackensack, Princeton and Flemington, N.J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; New York, N.Y.; and Wilmington and Georgetown, Del.
