Mr. Weinstein, based in Archer's Haddonfield, N.J., headquarters, was formerly an Associate with the firm. Cynthia Brooks, based in the firm's office in Hackensack, N.J., was formerly Of Counsel. She joined Archer earlier this year through a merger with the former Herten, Burstein, Sheridan, Cevasco, Bottinelli, Litt & Harz L.L.C.

CYNTHIA BROOKS is a member of the firm's Transactional Real Estate Group, where she focuses on commercial real estate transactions, mortgage lending transactions and corporate transactions. She gained her strong background in commercial real estate law through representation of major regional and national clients, including landlords and tenants of shopping centers and office space. A member of the National Bar Association Real Estate Property Section, Ms. Brooks has served as a panelist for the Association's national leasing seminar. Her other professional associations include the American Bar Association, Women Rainmakers Section; the New Jersey State Bar Association, for which she served on the Young Lawyers Division Executive Committee and received the Community Service Award; and Industrial/Commercial Real Estate Women.

DAVID A. WEINSTEIN is a member of Archer's Corporate Services Department. Mr. Weinstein concentrates his practice in public financing, including project financing, as well as alternative energy development and financing. Mr. Weinstein has served as bond counsel, underwriter's counsel, trustee's counsel and bank counsel for various public financing transactions including for educational facilities, municipalities and public authorities. Mr. Weinstein has developed an expertise in alternative energy development and financing, assisting clients in developing and structuring alternative energy projects. Mr. Weinstein has experience drafting and negotiating disclosure documents, power purchase agreements, supply contracts, indentures, letters of credit and related transactional documents.

Mr. Weinstein was elected in 2009 to a three-year term on the Moorestown Township Board of Education. He also currently serves on the Board of Trustees of the Burlington County Chapter of the American Red Cross, where he heads the Finance Committee. Mr. Weinstein also serves on the Development Committee for Samaritan Hospice and on the Board of Trustees for the Moorestown Theater Company.
