

Kerri Chewning Appointed Trustee of the Association of the Federal Bar of New Jersey

Press Releases

10.13.2011

Attorney Kerri E. Chewning of Archer P.C. has been appointed as a Trustee for the Association of the Federal Bar of New Jersey, the pre-eminent Bar Association for federal court practitioners in the District of New Jersey.

The Trustees help set policy and guide operations for the Association, which serves as a resource for the Court and provides opportunities for federal practitioners to interface with federal judges and the Court on issues of mutual interest. Members come from private practice, government agencies, military branches, law schools and the judiciary.

Ms. Chewning, of Burlington Township, N.J., practices in Archer's Litigation Department in the firm's headquarters in Haddonfield, N.J., where she is also a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Group and Intellectual Property Group. She has extensive experience in complex litigation in the federal and state courts of New Jersey as well as in the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. Ms. Chewning's practice has an emphasis on defense of class actions, civil rights and employment cases, as well as litigation involving medical and health care issues and intellectual property disputes, including patent litigation. She has expertise in the area of electronic discovery.

Ms. Chewning is an active member of the Lawyer's Advisory Committee for the District Court of New Jersey as well as the Treasurer of the Federal Practice Section of the New Jersey Bar Association.
