

Steven Mignogna is Featured Speaker At Major Estate Planning Seminar

Press Releases

 align="Steven K. Mignogna, Chair of the Estate & Trust Litigation Practice Group at Archer P.C., will be a featured speaker at the 41st Annual Estate Planning Seminar presented by the Estate Planning Council of Portland, Oregon. The seminar takes place on Friday, February 3, 2012, at the Oregon Convention Center in Portland. Mr. Mignogna will present a survey of novel estate and trust litigation claims.

As estate and trust litigation intensifies around the country, a wave of novel claims has been evolving. Most trust and estate professionals need to be educated about these claims – and may not know of them at all. This program will survey the most significant, including: the elements of each; defenses; and techniques in the planning process to avoid them.

The seminar draws speakers and attendees from across the country. For more information, visit www.epcportland.org/

A nationally recognized authority on estate and trust litigation, Mr. Mignogna serves as Vice Chair of the Litigation, Ethics and Malpractice Group of the Real Property, Trust and Estate Law Section of the American Bar Association (ABA). Prior to that appointment, he was Chair of the Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee in that Group. Mr. Mignogna writes and lectures widely on estate and trust litigation. He has represented both institutions and individuals in an assortment of cases in state and federal courts at both the trial and appellate levels.
