

Bergen County Bar Association 19th Annual Land Use Symposium

Press Releases

03.09.2012

Richard Jon Contant, a Partner in Archer's Hackensack, N.J., office, will be among the presenters this Saturday, March 10, for the Bergen County Bar Association's 19th Annual Land Use Symposium at Bergen Community College in Paramus.

The program will cover all aspects of Municipal Land Use. Presentations will address recent updates in zoning and planning, COAH, redevelopment and other relevant topics.

Mr. Contant has participated extensively in land use development applications over his 40-plus year career, including arguing the landmark case of DeSimone v. Greater Englewood Housing Corporation, before the New Jersey Supreme Court.

For more information, click here.

Related People

Richard J. Contant

Of Counsel

✉ rcontant@archerlaw.com

☎ 201.498.8537

Related Services

- Land Use

© 2025 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.

