

Robert Bucknam on ICLE/NJSBA Panel for Land Use Law Seminar

Press Releases

06.06.2012

Who: Robert W. Bucknam, Jr.

What: The New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE), a division of the New Jersey State Bar Association (NJSBA) will host "Land Use Basics". Mr. Bucknam will present the "Fundamentals: Municipal Land Use Law and Regulations."

The land use development approval process in the Garden State requires navigating through an increasingly complex bureaucratic maze of permits, approvals and other governmental regulations. This regulatory maze has resulted in the proliferation of local, county, state and federal agencies with overlapping review authority. This practical program will give you a road map for navigating through the maze. You'll review the basics of land use practice, enhance your understanding of land use law, and pick up valuable practice tips for appearing before local planning and zoning boards.

Where: The Westin Mt. Laurel
555 Fellowship Road
Mt. Laurel, NJ

When: June 6, 2012
