Lynne Abraham to Serve as Panelist at Big Brothers Big Sisters Summit

Who: Lynne M. Abraham

What: A&G Partner Lynne Abraham will be a panelist at the Big Brothers Big Sisters Southeastern PA & First Niagara Summit 2012: Our Children, Our Community, Our Future. She and the panel will discuss best practices around protecting children involved in social service programs from people who may want to cause them harm. Topics explored will include creating a system of protection, lessons from the Sandusky case, and key elements of child protection that every corporate and non-profit leader should consider when investing in and/or delivering programs.

Join Lynne and other regional leaders to discuss how to better serve children we care about and to ensure they are protected while they are involved in our programs.

Where: WHYY studios

Independence Mall West

150 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106

When: Monday November 12, 2012
