

A. Paul Genato Appointed to N.J. Supreme Court Committee on Tax Court

Press Releases

10.24.2012

A. Paul Genato, an Associate in the Princeton, N.J. office of the law firm of Archer, P.C., has been appointed to serve as a member of the New Jersey Supreme Court Committee on the Tax Court for the 2012-2014 term. The Committee is comprised of members of the bench and tax bar as well as representatives of taxpayers' groups, local, county and state tax administrators and others concerned with the administration and review of the New Jersey tax laws. The Court relies on this Committee to provide well-reasoned, expert advice on matters within its general area of knowledge and responsibility.

Mr. Genato concentrates his practice in the areas of local property taxation, eminent domain, redevelopment, and state tax matters. He has handled matters involving all phases of property tax appeal litigation throughout New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Virginia, Ohio, Florida and various other states. He advises clients on issues regarding property tax issues, liabilities, exemptions, and farmland assessment qualification.
