

Brian McGovern to Offer Post-Election Analysis on News 12 Political Broadcast

Press Releases

11.08.2012

Archer attorney Brian M. McGovern will be a featured guest this weekend on a post-election installment of New Jersey Power & Politics, a weekly show on 24-hour local news channel News 12 New Jersey.

Mr. McGovern will offer post-election commentary and analysis, specifically on the path forward for the Republican Party both in New Jersey and nationally after a disappointing showing in Tuesday's voting. The show airs Saturday, Nov. 11, and Sunday, Nov. 12, at 10 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Hosted by News 12 State House reporter Luke Margolis, New Jersey Power & Politics focuses on the state's politics, policy and related developments through in-depth coverage featuring news makers themselves.

News 12 New Jersey serves 14 counties and more than 1.8 million homes on the Cablevision, Comcast, Service-Electric and Time-Warner cable systems in Northern and Central New Jersey. Check local listings for the cable channel in your area.

Mr. McGovern is a member of the Corporate Department of Archer in Haddonfield, N.J., where he practices general corporate law. A Fellow of the Eagleton Institute of Politics while attending Rutgers University School of Law, Mr. McGovern has served as an intern with the New Jersey Assembly Minority Office and formerly owned and operated a political consulting firm, Exit 3 Strategies LLC. He has been regularly featured as political commentator on radio and television.
