Mark Sever, a Partner in Archer's Haddonfield office, has recently been selected to serve on the Rowan University Entrepreneurship Program Advisory Council.

The purpose of the Entrepreneurship Program Advisory Council at Rowan University is to provide strategic counsel guidance, advice and support to the Entrepreneurship Program and its faculty and students. The Advisory Council is comprised of business leaders with a variety of backgrounds, who lecture in the classroom, collaborate with faculty on research projects, mentor students and provide counsel in curriculum development.

Mr. Sever, a member of Archer's Corporate Department and Co-Chair of the Firm's Intellectual Property Practice Group, specializes in the practice of business law with an emphasis on intellectual property and technology-related matters. Mr. Sever represents a wide range of clients from closely held and emerging growth companies, to governmental and quasi-governmental entities, to large national and international private and publicly held companies.
