

Archer's David H. Marion to be Awarded American Jewish Committee's Judge Learned Hand Award

Press Releases

01.16.2013

On Wednesday, January 23, 2013, prominent attorney David H. Marion of Archer P.C. will receive the 2013 Judge Learned Hand Award presented by the American Jewish Committee of Philadelphia & Southern New Jersey (AJC). This award recognizes outstanding members of the Philadelphia legal community who have distinguished themselves through professional achievement and dedicated community leadership.

The Judge Learned Hand Award was established in honor of the senior judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit from 1924 to 1951, widely admired as a dean among American jurists and famous for the extensive range of decisions he rendered. In selecting Mr. Marion for this award, the AJC nominating committee cited his lifelong commitment to the profession and his contributions to many of the organizations and institutions that enhance the quality of life in the Philadelphia area.

The AJC of Philadelphia & Southern New Jersey's Learned Hand Award Dinner will take place on Wednesday, January 23, 2013 5:30p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Rittenhouse Hotel in Philadelphia.

Mr. Marion, a Partner with Archer in Philadelphia, has provided service and leadership to numerous civic and charitable organizations throughout his career. He serves as National Chancellor of the Tau Epsilon Rho Law Society and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Anti-Defamation League Board of Directors. He formerly served as Chancellor of the Philadelphia Bar Association, President of the University of Pennsylvania Law Alumni Society, President of the Lawyers Club of Philadelphia, and President of the Rotary Club of Philadelphia.

Mr. Marion's courtroom experience includes landmark victories in the U.S. Supreme Court, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court and the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. He has been recognized for inclusion in Best Lawyers in America in the areas of Appellate Practice, Bet-the-Company Litigation, Commercial Litigation, First Amendment Law and Legal Malpractice Law, including as the Philadelphia area's 2013 "Lawyer of the Year" for First Amendment Law. He has also been recognized by election to Fellowship in the American College of Trial

Lawyers, the International Academy of Trial Lawyers and the American Academy of Appellate Lawyers. He resides in Meadowbrook, Pa.
