

Melissa Osorio Appointed to CONTACT Community Helplines Board of Trustees

Press Releases

03.01.2013

Attorney Melissa Osorio of Archer P.C. in Haddonfield, N.J., has been appointed to the Board of Trustees of CONTACT Community Helplines, a nonprofit agency staffed by trained and dedicated volunteers, and supported by the United Way.

CONTACT Community Helplines is an affiliate of Lifeline International. The network of 24-hour crisis helplines has spread throughout the world and is active in 15 countries on four continents. Accredited by CONTACT USA, CONTACT Community Helplines has been providing services to the residents of Camden, Cumberland, Gloucester and Salem counties since 1971. The organization's primary mission is to listen to people confronting crisis or in need and, where appropriate, to refer them to other agencies and organizations whose services they may require or benefit from.

In addition to the Helplines, the organization provides a Telephone Reassurance Program, a free service for senior citizens in Camden and Gloucester counties where volunteers call daily to check on the senior and report any problems to whomever can help.

In her role as a Trustee, Ms. Osorio will serve on the Resource Development Committee, which develops and implements programs to increase awareness about CONTACT and the services provided, assists in fundraising, develops programs and activities to assist in the recruitment of new volunteers, and works as a liaison between CONTACT and the public, the media and other organizations.

Ms. Osorio is an Associate in Archer's Litigation Department and concentrates her practice in estate and trust litigation. She handles all types of probate matters including will contests, actions against fiduciaries, and matters involving New Jersey's Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act.
