

Anthony La Ratta Appointed to State Bar Association Special Committee

Press Releases

09.06.2013

Anthony R. La Ratta, Partner with the law firm of Archer P.C., has been appointed to the Equity Jurisprudence Committee of the New Jersey State Bar Association (NJSBA), which works to improve attorneys' practice before and interfaces with the General Equity Courts of New Jersey.

An NJSBA Special Committee, the Equity Jurisprudence Committee provides programs designed to improve the skills of NJSBA members when practicing before the General Equity Courts, and facilitates interaction between the general equity judiciary and the Association. NJSBA Special Committees focus on various areas of substantive law and are formed to meet specific needs of the Association and its membership.

Mr. La Ratta, a resident of Washington Township in Gloucester County, N.J., is based in Archer's Haddonfield, N.J., office, where he concentrates his practice in the area of commercial litigation with an emphasis on probate matters, estates, trusts, guardianships and fiduciaries. He has represented institutions and individuals in a variety of contexts and has handled cases involving will contests, undue influence, diminished capacity and accountings of estates and trusts. He is a court-approved mediator for New Jersey probate cases.

In addition to his NJSBA position, Mr. La Ratta's extensive professional and civic involvement includes serving as Chair of the Probate & Fiduciary Litigation Committee of the American Bar Association (ABA) and formerly as President of the Estate and Financial Planning Council of Southern New Jersey (EFPCSNJ).
