

Steven Mignogna Appointed Chair of American Bar Association Group

Press Releases

09.11.2013

Attorney Steven K. Mignogna of Archer P.C. has been appointed Chair of the Litigation, Ethics and Malpractice Group of the American Bar Association (ABA).

As Chair, Mr. Mignogna has overall leadership responsibility for the Group, which: reviews national developments related to trust, estate and fiduciary litigation matters; addresses ethics and malpractice issues affecting trust and estate lawyers; educates members on national trends through efforts such as continuing legal education programs and articles; and analyzes litigation, ethics and malpractice disputes that impact estate planning, administration or any other litigation or controversy.

Mr. Mignogna, a Partner and shareholder based in Archer's Haddonfield office, serves as Chair of the firm's Estate and Trust Litigation Practice. He has served the past two years as Vice Chair of the Litigation, Ethics and Malpractice Group. In addition to his leadership position with that Group, Mr. Mignogna is a former Chair of the ABA's Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee. Both the Group and the Committee are part of the ABA's Section of Real Property, Trust & Estate Law.

The ABA is one of the world's largest voluntary professional organizations, with nearly 400,000 members and more than 3,500 entities. It is committed to improving the legal profession, eliminating bias and enhancing diversity, and advancing the rule of law throughout the United States and around the world.

Mr. Mignogna, of Voorhees, N.J., focuses his practice in the area of commercial litigation, with a concentration on probate matters, estates, fiduciaries, guardianships and real estate. He has lectured and published locally and nationally. Mr. Mignogna is principal author of the treatise, Estate and Trust Litigation, and editor and contributing author of The New Jersey Estate Planning Manual and The New Jersey Probate Procedures Book, all published by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.
