News & Press

02.04.2014

Deborah A. Hays, a Partner with the law firm Archer in Haddonfield, has been appointed to serve on the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey (CCSNJ).

Ms. Hays also serves as General Counsel to the CCSNJ and will continue to do so while serving on the Board. Ms. Hays is a shareholder of Archer as well as Chair of the firm's Corporate Department. She concentrates her practice in business financing, securities offerings and compliance, mergers and acquisitions, e-commerce, director advisory services, and technology transfer and licensing. She is also sought after for her strategic planning abilities for high-tech and emerging growth companies.

The Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey is the region's largest, most active, and influential business organization. CCSNJ started in 1873 as the Camden Board of Trade and has grown to represent the seven counties of Southern New Jersey, Greater Philadelphia and Northern Delaware. It provides members with opportunities to meet each other and do business, retain resources to enhance their position in the marketplace, and is a collective voice on public policy issues that impact operations and profitability.

Archer PC is a full-service regional law firm with more than 175 lawyers and nine offices in Haddonfield, Hackensack, Princeton, Flemington and Shrewsbury N.J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; New York, N.Y.; and Wilmington and Georgetown, Del. The Firm has been serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for 85 years. Each office provides full-service litigation and transactional capabilities in nearly every area of law including corporate, estate & trust, family & matrimonial, labor & employment, litigation, medical & personal injury and real estate services. For more information, visit www.archerlaw.com.
