

Andrew Cevasco Elected Secretary of the Bergen County Bar Association

Press Releases

04.21.2014

Andrew J. Cevasco, a Partner in the Hackensack, N.J., office of Archer P.C., was recently elected Secretary of the Bergen County Bar Association, placing him in line to eventually be elected President of the Association.

Mr. Cevasco has served since 2005 on the Board of Trustees of the Association, and is Co-Chair of the Board's Professionalism and Estate Planning/Probate Committees. He and other executive officers were elected and installed at the Association's annual meeting on April 10, 2014. Having joined Archer in 2011 through a merger with his former firm, Herten, Burstein, Sheridan, Cevasco, Bottinelli, Litt & Harz LLC, Mr. Cevasco advances the firms' long tradition of service to the BCBA, including three partners who have served as President of the Association.

Founded in December 1898, the Bergen County Bar Association advocates for improvements in the court system to improve the administration of justice for the benefit of both attorneys and the public at large. Through educational seminars and volunteer opportunities, it also provides a forum for attorneys to enhance their practices and provide law-related community service. In addition, the Association provides social opportunities for lawyers from Bergen County to interact with members of the judiciary, political representatives and each other.

Admitted to practice in 1980, Mr. Cevasco has established himself as an experienced and successful personal and business advisor for a broad array of legal issues. He concentrates his practice in Trusts and Estates, but has substantial experience in corporate and commercial matters. He has handled a wide variety of cases for individual and business clients, ranging from transactional matters to trials and appeals in both the state and federal courts.

Archer PC is a full-service regional law firm with more than 175 lawyers and nine offices in Haddonfield, Hackensack, Princeton, Flemington and Red Bank N.J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; New York, N.Y.; and Wilmington and Georgetown, Del. The Firm has been serving Fortune 100 clients, small to medium-sized businesses and individuals for 85 years. Each office provides full-service litigation and transactional capabilities in nearly every area of law including corporate, estate & trust, family & matrimonial, labor & employment, litigation, medical & personal injury and real estate services. For more information, visit www.archerlaw.com.
